Andrés Guillermo Morales Rolón is 26 years old and Colombian-Venezuelan.

Time in the US: Lived in Denver since 2022. Worked construction for two different companies. Has no criminal record.

Detained: February 5 at 5:00 AM. Detained at his apartment in front of his wife. He had his work permit but the agents just threw the documents on the floor and handcuffed him.

Requested deportation to Columbia: His paperwork was sent to a Columbian Consulate in San Francisco. They checked his fingerprints and later said everything was in order, gave him his passport number and told them “they would return him in a few days.”

Transferred from Colorado to Texas: He said he was forced to sign a release order. On Friday the 14th his wife searched for him on the app she was using to communicate with him. The app said he had been released. The ICE website had no information on him.

Location now: Apparently no longer in the US. Believed to be in CECOT in El Salvador.
